

Obtaining Prior Express Written Consent: Text messaging services

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act generally requires businesses to obtain express consent before contacting members on their mobile phones. To ensure that you don't miss any important communications, including possible fraud or suspicious activity on your account, we are requesting your permission to contact you via text messaging on your mobile phone.

By acknowledging and signing this consent form, you are granting Remington Federal Credit Union to contact you on the mobile phone number(s) listed below.

By consenting via this form, you grant permission to the Credit Union to contact you for any reason. Some examples of reasons we may contact you include: suspected fraud or suspicious activity, suspected identity theft, data security breaches, communications about existing accounts and loans, money transfers, notification of late payments, and/or collection efforts. Remington Federal Credit Union does not engage in telemarketing.

By signing this form, you represent that you are the wireless subscriber or customary user with respect to the wireless number(s) provided and that you have the authority to provide consent. Please note that depending on your mobile service plan, message and data rates may apply by your mobile provider.

Should you choose to grant consent to contact you on your mobile phone number, you may withdraw consent or opt-out at any time by any reasonable means, including providing written notice to Remington Federal Credit Union at 39 Central Plaza, Ilion, NY 13357, by emailing us at cumembers@remingtonfcu.com or calling 315-894-9924.

Remington Federal Credit Union will ensure that all covered phone calls/texts and covered faxes comply with the requirements of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and the Junk Fax Prevention Act (JFPA). The Board delegates to management the responsibility for developing procedures in accordance with this policy.
